

Youth Beginner Beekeeping Scholarship Program

Adams County Beekeepers Association (ACBA)
In association with
Adams Co. Farm Bureau

Interested in Beekeeping?

Are you new to beekeeping and a resident of Adams County?

Are you enrolled in public, private, or home school and in grades 8 through 11?

Then...this scholarship may be for you!

Objectives

- To educate youth in the art of beekeeping and to promote a better understanding of the value of honeybees to our environment and to the food chain.
- To provide an opportunity for youth to experience responsibility and enjoyment through beekeeping.
- To provide an avenue for youth to engage in a vocation and gain the potential to pursue beekeeping as a sideline or fulltime vocation.

The Award

- A one year membership in the Adams County Beekeepers Association
- A beginning beekeeper guidebook
- A set of woodenware for a beehive
- A nuc (aka nucleus) or package of bees for the hive
- Beekeeping gear: jacket, gloves, hive tool, and bee smoker
- Mentoring by an Adams County Beekeepers Association member
